 - 3.2.24. to sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the business or property of the Group, either together or in portions, and to accept anything of value in return, and to acquire the whole or any part of the business or assets of any person, firm, or company carrying on any activity in support of the Principal Objects and to give any form of consideration in return for the business or assets;
 - 3.2.25. to reward any person, firm or company rendering services to the Group by cash payment or by any other means;
 - 3.2.26. to do all or any of the things or matters permitted by this Memorandum of Association in any part of the world, and as principal, agent, contractor or otherwise, and by or through agents, brokers, sub-contractors, or otherwise and either alone or in conjunction with others;
 - 3.2.27. to carry on any other business or activity which may seem capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any activity of the Group calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Group; and
 - 3.2.28. to do all such other lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the pursuit or to the attainment of any of the Principal Objects.
4. The liability of the members is limited.
 5. Every member of the Group undertakes to contribute such amount as may be required (not exceeding £1.00 (one pound)) to the Group's assets if it should be wound up while he is a member or within one year after he ceases to be a member, for payment of the Group's debts and liabilities contracted before he ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustment of the rights of the contributories among themselves.

6. The income and property of the Group shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its Principal Objects as set forth in this Memorandum of Association and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred, directly or indirectly, by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise however by way of profit to members of the Group. For the avoidance of doubt no subscription paid by a member shall be refunded, but shall fall to be dealt with in accordance with clauses 6 and 7.

Provided that nothing herein shall prevent any payment in good faith by the Group:

- 6.1. of reasonable and proper remuneration to any member, officer or servant of the Group for any services rendered to the Group and as set out in clause 3.3.23;
 - 6.2. of interest on money lent by any member of the Group at a reasonable and proper rate;
 - 6.3. of reasonable and proper rent for premises demised or let by any member; and
 - 6.4. to any member of out-of-pocket expenses.
7. If upon the winding up or dissolution of the Group there remains, after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to or distributed among the members of the Group, but shall be given or transferred to some other body or bodies having objects similar to the Principal Objects of the Group, and which shall prohibit the distribution of its or their income and property to an extent at least as great as is Imposed on the Group under or by virtue of clause 6 hereof, such body or bodies to be determined by the members of the Group at or before the time of dissolution, and if and so far as effect cannot be given to such provision, then to some other body or bodies the objects of which are the promotion of charity and anything incidental or conducive thereto (whether or not the body or bodies in question shall be member or members of the Group) to be similarly determined.
 8. True accounts shall be kept or the sums of money received and expended by the Group and the matter in respect of which such receipt and expenses shall take place and of the property, credits and liabilities of the Group; and, subject to any reasonable restrictions as to the time and manner of inspecting the same and that may be imposed in accordance with the regulations of the Group for the time being, shall be open to the inspection of the members. Once at least every year the accounts of the Group shall be examined, and the correctness of the balance sheet ascertained by one or more properly qualified auditors.
