Chairman's statement

The directors are pleased with the company's progress and results for the year. The turnover of £316, 693 (2004 - £276,870) demonstrates EEEGR's ability to secure funding from members, private business and the public sector. The operating surplus for the year was £31,814 (2004 - £22,017) which will be utilized to develop services and representation for the benefit of members.

Prudent management has ensured that EEEGR retained a positive working capital position throughout the year.

EEEGR's activities continue at a high level, maintaining a strong profile for the regional energy industry. As at 31 March 2005 its membership totalled 180 of which 139 are commercial companies (2004 - 146 of which 103 commercial). The Innovation Awards ran for the second year, bringing forward high quality entries, a winner from the oil and gas industry and two runners up from the renewables sector. The event coincided with the most successful conference run to date to profile opportunities in the Southe rn North Sea for the oil and gas supply chain. These were just two of 10 events run during the year, attracting 1,110 delegates, 87% from the private sector. The Summer Conference in 2004 was attended by Stephen Timms, Energy Minister, where he announced a collaborative joint industry/academia project focused on the possible reuse of pipelines in the North Sea, working with the Recommissioning Partnership, hosted by EEEGR. He also noted the work of the Skills for Energy Partnership.

During the year Terry Hill, who has served as Chairman for the past 3 years, resigned, as he was to take up a new appointment in Australia with his employer. EEEGR's directors wish to formally record their thanks for his stewardship and wise counsel over this time. This report is presented by Mark Goodall who, at the request of the Board kindly agreed to serve as Acting Chairman, giving the Board the opportunity to select a new chairman drawn from the elected board after our second full member election pr ocess, commencing in August 2005.

EEEGR remains committed to continue developing its role as a regional energy industry association, and advance sustainable prosperity in East of England through the promotion of a balanced energy portfolio, both in supply and demand.

Mr M L Goodall

Directors' responsibilities

Company law requires the directors to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company and of the profit or loss of the company for that year.

In preparing those financial statements, the directors are required to select suitable accounting policies, as described on page 9, and then apply them on a consistent basis, making judgements and estimates that are prudent and reasonable. The directors must also prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 1985. The directors are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Auditors

A resolution to re-appoint Lovewell Blake as auditors for the ensuing year will be proposed at the annual general meeting in accordance with section 385 of the Companies Act 1985.

Small company provisions

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions for small companies under Part VII of the Companies Act 1985.

Independent auditors' report to the members of EEEGR

We have audited the financial statements of EEEGR for the year ended 31 March 2005 on pages 7 to 12 which have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective June 2002), under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out on page 9.

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Section 235 of the Companies Act 1985. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of directors and auditors

The directors' responsibilities for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards are set out in the Statement of Directors' Responsibilities on page 3.

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements and United Kingdom Auditing Standards.

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view and are properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985. We also report to you if, in our opinion, the Directors' Report is not consistent with the financial statements, if the company has not kept proper accounting records, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or if information specified by law regarding directors' remuneration and transactions with the company is not disclosed.

We read other information contained in the Annual Report, and consider whether it is consistent with the audited financial statements. This other information comprises only the Directors' Report and the Chairman's statement. We consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements or material inconsistencies with the financial statements. Our responsibilities do not extend to any other information.

Basis of audit opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with United Kingdom Auditing Standards issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the directors in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

In our opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31 March 2005 and of its profit for the year then ended, and have been properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985.
