

Celebrating 50 Years

Provider of professional safety, emergency response and survival training for the offshore energy sector since 1975.

What's Changed in 50 years?

1965 - Gas discovered in the North Sea
1966 – Gas production started in the North Sea
1969 – Oil first struck in North Sea
1975 - Oil Production Began – Argyll Field

3rd December 1975 The Petroleum Training
Association (North Sea) - registered with the UK Charities Commission

‘to identify the industries training needs’

Key Milestones

- 1979 - Development & delivery of HUET/Drill Tank Training - RGI
 - 1984 –1800 North Sea workers completed a 5 day basic survival & safety course.
 - 1985 – Petans Norwich opened a Helipad & simulated helideck fire fighting. A cold dip in the North Sea and Fire Fighting in Norwich.
 - 1988 – Piper Alpha Disaster, Lord Cullen Report (1990).
 - Sept 1995 –Horsham St Faith Site fully developed to enable the full Survival (BOSIET) delivery on one site.
 - October 2016 – GWO Accreditation – Basic Training for those working on Wind Turbines Offshore
-

Local Supply Chain

- Knowledge and Experience
 - Value
 - Flexibility
 - Demand led Products
 - Accredited Banksman/Slinger & Rigger Coming Soon
 - No Shareholders
-

50 Years and Counting.....so what's next
